

Hear Kyla from JSU Explain How LRAP Makes a Difference Transcript

Oh, hey. Didn't see you stopped by. But now that you're here, let me tell you about one of the newest opportunities we offer here at Jackson State University.

It's called the Loan Repayment Assistance Program, but you can call it LRAP for short. This program is designed to alleviate any concerns about paying back student or parent loans after graduation so you can pursue your degree worry free.

Now, I know this sounds great and all, but how exactly does it work? If your income after graduation is less than $50,000, LRAP can help you pay back up to $80,000 in student, private, or parent loans at no additional cost to you or your family.

But that's not all. Jackson State University is the only HBCU to offer the LRAP award to its students. Because here at Jackson State, we believe in investing in our students' future, both in and out of the classroom.
